"It" began with an idea and developed into an effective program benefitting lots of terrific folks. I left good old Michigan in the spring of 1970 to begin a new career in the women's garment industry, which lasted 25 years. During that period, I moved to Eastern Pennsylvania, met and married my bride, Diane, of 22 wonderfully exciting years. We lived in Medford N.J. and now enjoy a country home in beautiful Lancaster County. Our neighbors are Amish farmers, creating many very special scenes for us to enjoy. My favorite school memories are being a part of "The King & I," our dramatics director, Garth Errington, was a very positive influence to me as well.
